NORTH MINING AREAS WILL BE GOOD FOR CITY

W. H. Fairburn, Mining Engineer, Impressed With Possibilities

"I am convinced that the North West Territories and the Great Bear Lake districts have great possibilities. When these districts were developed, Western Canada is going to benefit by it a great deal," stated W. H. Fairburn, Toronto mining man, who is in Edmonton yesterday from Great Bear Lake in a Canadian Airways Junkers plane piloted by Walter Oliver.

"The northern mining fields are going to make Edmonton, once they are developed. All the machinery and equipment, as well as all living supplies, will be immediately sent from Edmonton. There is to be no other place that they can come from," he said.

HELD CANADA TOGETHER

"It has been the mining industry in Canada that has held Canada together in the last four years and it will be the mining industry in the future that will bring back the unity," added Mr. Fairburn.

"The power work in the Great Bear district is expected to be completed by the end of the year, owing to the short season, but once this is completed the northern mining excitement, conditions for mining. There is an amount of electricity power, which means that there will be cheap electricity. This is essential for mining operations."

FIELD IN INFANCY

"Undoubtedly there are some nice mines at Great Bear. As these are developed Great Bear will assume a significant place in Canadian mining activity. At present there is a great deal of activity but the whole field, of course, is in its infancy and it will take a few years before it will be properly opened up."

Fairburn is going to Winnipeg on business for about ten days and then intend to go back to the North West Territories and Great Bear Lake before the fall freeze-up.

Banking and Commerce

By G. G. McGeer, K.C., M.L.A.

Herewith is another installment of the evidence given by G. G. McGeer, K.C., M.L.A., of Vancouver, before the Banking Committee of the House of Commons, Ottawa, July 29, 1934. This evidence was published in part before, but this is the first time it has ever been given in its entirety by any newspaper. The article started in the June 14 issue of the Bulletin.—EDITOR

Hon. Mr. Rhodes: It is a matter for the committee to decide, but nearly I point out this, without any desire of unduly restricting Mr. McGeer's time, that there is already evidence before it from the Royal Commission on Banking in which he covered a great deal of the same ground in the same way that he did on Tuesday of last week. The Chairman: Practically all.

Hon. Mr. Rhodes: And he could have used his time for great advantage had he dealt with new matter.

Hon. Mr. Rhodes: I think that is true, Mr. Chairman, but at the same time we were not present to ask Mr. McGeer questions when the Commission was sitting, and the other day when he was here we did not get a chance to ask him anything, and I think one two of us would certainly like to question him.

Hon. Mr. Rhodes: It is a matter for the committee itself to decide whether to ask a question of Mr. McGeer or the time he has taken. If the committee wants the privilege of examining G. G. McGeer, the committee should have that K.C. M.L.A. privilege.

The Chairman: Dr. McGeer, would you withdraw your motion?

Mr. McGeer: Yes, Mr. Chairman. I look upon this whole thing as nothing but propaganda—to listen to a speech here, it has nothing to do with the task that has been assigned to this committee.

MARCONI AGAIN PROVES WIZARD WITH WIRELESS

This Time He Invents Lighthouse Safeguards For Navigation

SANTA MARGHERITA LIGURE, Italy, July 31.—Marconi Guglielmo, the inventor of the wireless, demonstrated successfully Monday what he believes is his greatest invention—a wireless lighthouse.

Even as his invention of the wireless saved thousands of lives through the S.O.S. he said, the lighthouse should save hundreds of ships from collision just outside ports.

In the presence of Fascist provincial authorities and newspapermen, Marconi, blind, yet fully, piloted the ocean-going yacht "Elettra" into the harbor at Santa Margherita.

His new apparatus is distributed in several points. First, an ultra-short wave transmission station on a high promontory about 300 feet above the sea.

Then there are two wireless lighthouses on large buoys floating at the entrance of the harbor a little more than 200 yards apart. Each buoy is equipped with a kind of relay station, being in effect a reflector.

Finally there is a receiving station about the same distance from the two kinds of indicators, a dial divided into a red and green section, and a loudspeaker.

As the ship pursued a direct course for the harbor the dial stood midway between the green and red sections, but the slightest depression to one side or the other caused a corresponding movement of the indicator.

At the same time, the loudspeaker gave two signals, one of high frequency, and the other of low frequency. The varying intensity of these two signals indicated to the pilot whether he was approaching the harbor and, if so, in what direction.

Oklahoma Prisons Tense As Court Ruling Given—Appeal Starts

OKLAHOMA, July 31.—The right of the state to perform vasectomy on high grade criminals was upheld last night by the state board of affairs in a test case at state.

Attorneys for George W. Winkler, 30-year-old inmate, gave immediate notice of appeal to the court from the board's ruling.

The prison "captive," that involuntary telephone line for men locked in a straitjacket during the prison last night with steadily news of the hearing.

Throughout the prison the atmosphere was tense. There are 362 criminals crowded through the prison last night with steadily news of the hearing.

Winkler, flanked by a committee of prisoners, declared emphatically he is against the law, though he volunteered for the test case.

"Just because I'm a criminal is no reason I'm not competent to run a family," he declared.

THE MEANIES

The Meanies Men were quite surprised, as they looked on and realized that Scouty was really eating gumdrops by the score. "To think," said one, "we got a score when they came sailing through the air! The Cheerful Chaps have thrown us food! This is a funny war."

when those things sailed into our camp. The certain of one thing, "If we had stood right up and stopped one of those things, we would have dropped. I only hope the Cheerful Chaps have no more, now, to fling."

"Well, little man, if you ask me, no more big gumdrops will we see," said Scouty. "I feel certain that your enemy's run out."

"Why don't you Meanies have a 'peep' come on, taste one gumdrop at least. Before you're through, you'll all be eating lots of them, no doubt."

The Meanies seemed to like this plan. Two of them very promptly out of sight, or you will be tied up like me."

"I came to try and rescue you, and that's what I intend to do," replied brave little Doty. "Now, be quiet as can be."

"You keep the Meanies at their meal and, while they're eating, I will steal back to the Cheerful Chaps' camp and return here with my rat."

"Well, take the Meanies by surprise and catch them as they're eating. What's happened. With me, I'm going to do my best."

The Cheerful Chaps stare a big charge in the next story.

Free State Declines To Honor King At Jubilee

CELEBRATION PLANNED FOR HIS MAJESTY

Acting Premier Baldwin Announces Silver Jubilee For 1935

LONDON, July 31.—The Irish Free State has declined to send a representative to participate in next year's celebration of the silver jubilee of King George's accession. It was revealed Monday in the House of Commons.

The revelation was made by acting premier, Stanley Baldwin, who announced the celebration would be held May 4 and 5 in 1935 and the 15th anniversary of Accession Day had been observed as a public holiday throughout the nation.

WELCOMED BY EMPIRE — Mr. Baldwin said prime ministers of Canada, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa had welcomed with warmth the suggestion they take part in the ceremonies at London, although it was impossible to take at the moment if they would be able to be present owing to possibility of political developments keeping them at home.

The acting-premier said also the government hoped to hold informal conversations with the premiers regarding important Empire questions, taking advantage of their presence here.

RELATIONS STRAINED — The Irish refusal of the invitation was decided by Premier Eamon De Valera and his executive on the grounds attendance was not possible under present conditions, a statement presumed to mean the Free State did not wish to take part in "view of differences between it and

ROTARY CLUB SURPRISED BY R. MACDONALD

British Premier Walks in on Kentville Club, Speaks But Briefly

KENTVILLE, N.S. July 31.—Prime Minister J. R. Bennett Macdonald of Great Britain surprised the Kentville Rotary Club luncheon meeting Monday by entering the hall just when they were hearing an address on "Obstacles on the road to disarmament" by Rev. J. H. Macdonald.

The Prime Minister was introduced to the speaker, an Acadia University professor, and then consented to say a few words to the meeting. It was his first public appearance since his departure from the Old Country several weeks ago in search of health.

"A Prime Minister has to learn to say a few words to the meeting," he continued, referring to physicians' instructions regarding his health. "I would like to stay and join with you in your festivities, but my health is such that I am not allowed to attend public meetings."

He urged the members to continue their work in spreading international goodwill. They were capable of cementing friendships between nations and countries where the politicians fight off, he said.

WHEAT PRICE TOO HIGH TO SELL EUROPE

Milling Industry Official Arrives Back in Canada, Complains

MONTREAL, July 31.—The price of Canadian wheat must come down if it is to be sold in the European market, C. Fitzgerald-Balke, European manager of the North-West Miller, said here Monday on his arrival from London to study the Canadian wheat and flour situation. After a trip through western Canada he will go to Minneapolis, the headquarters of his journal.

"The reason Canadian wheat is not selling today is because it is five shillings a quarter higher than that of other countries," he contended. "Canadian wheat is worth three shillings a quarter more than others, and the five shillings Canada is demanding."

"Canada is not selling wheat to France, and is selling less to the Netherlands. Canada via takes most of her wheat from Great Britain and Denmark cannot buy more Canadian flour because the Dominion is not buying enough Danish goods."

"Promised Land" With Black Folk Found On Island

New Civilization Filled With Mysteries For Scientists, 200,000 More People British Empire

NEW YORK, July 31.—A special cable to the New York Times from London today says a "promised land" of grass, fertile country inhabited by 200,000 natives of unknown tribes has just been discovered by Australian government officers in the unexplored central part of New Guinea, the island north of Australia.

Shut off from the world by towering mountain ranges, the natives have been "lost" for centuries, yet they have evolved a civilization all their own. Details of the discovery have been sent to London by E. W. P. Chinnery, Australian government geographer, and they will be described during the week to the international congress of anthropological and ethnological sciences, which was opened by Prime George Mackay.

MANY MYSTERIES — The finding of the unknown region and its inhabitants opens a blank spot of 5,000 square miles of the world's map, and has excited scientists with many mysteries.

"There is little doubt some civilized race lived in these island centuries ago and passed on," said Mr. Chinnery. "The natives resemble some of the ancient Egyptians used for centuries as slaves in the present-day natives did not know how to use them, for the natives using ornamental clay whistles unlike anything ever seen in New Guinea, but strangely similar to those found in South America."

They have a complete knowledge of gardening and agriculture, and the rest of New Guinea—eight times the size of England—filling of the island is almost unknown. Their gardens are laid out in symmetrical checkerboard patterns and they are able to grow sweet potatoes, sugar cane, bananas and beans for food.

HEALTHY BLINKS — Apparently they are fine, healthy blacks, not unlike their neighbors of other parts of the world, but much stronger and sturdier.

The newly found land lies in the southern part of the former German colony of New Guinea now under Australian mandate. The Black mountains lie to the north, and the rest of the island is a grass-covered plateau country on the other side, stretching away to the horizon.

"We just rubbed our eyes," said Mr. Chinnery. "We couldn't believe what we saw. Instead of endless jungles we saw beautiful rolling country ahead of us with vines and breadfruit trees growing everywhere. It was a kind of us who never imagined could exist in New Guinea. Most of the plateau is between 5,000 and 6,000 feet above the sea, and the climate is cool and pleasant."

NOT UNFRIENDLY — Later the explorers pushed into the new country on foot. The natives were not unfriendly to the British. Chinnery, although the strangeness of their language made it difficult. Penetration of the new territory is still proceeding rapidly, said he, it is being done gradually and carefully so as not to arouse the natives.

"It is a pretty big responsibility to send 200,000 natives to British Empire and make sure they won't be exploited," he pointed out. "The present we are trying to invent is a system of indirect rule under which one man from each village is chosen to do the government work of keeping law and order."

Tuberculosis costs this country $1,000,000 annually.
